New Braunfels, Texas

October 15-17, 2010

Hosted by T Bar M

Have the past few years been challenging, to say the least? Have you encountered obstacles you've never had to face before? Have your faith and your family been tested? Do you keep waiting for things to get back to "normal"? If your answer to any of these questions is "yes", then keep reading!

The theme for our 2010 Purposed Performance Life Challenge is "Creating a Purposed Mindset for Challenging Times".

In the midst of what is being considered one of the most challenging economic times in our nation's history, families and individuals who aren't being bailed out by the government are struggling on a much more personal basis. This year's conference has been customized to encourage, inspire, and equip people to face these challenging times with hope, resolve, enthusiasm and peace...with a purposed mindset!

This conference will help you redefine and reframe old concepts with fresh and purposed insight:

Connection... The relationships you have with yourself and with others are vital to your happiness and success in 2011. We'll help you foster them.

Creation... Creativity is a necessity in our new world. In 2011 you much choose to be a creator. We'll show you how and why.

Challenge... The question is not "Will you face challenges?" but "When?" and "How prepared are you?" We'll teach you how to anticipate and respond.

Clarity... In a time where most people are confused and frustrated, focus is a vital skill. We'll help you clarify what truly deserves your attention in 2011.

Community... Far more than an assumed reality, community is essential to our new reality. We'll lead you in choosing your purposed community.

Please make the choice to join us in creating a plan for 2011 that will transform your life. You will leave refreshed and renewed, with a purposed mindset that will lead you through the new year. You will leave changed!

Due to these challenging times, we are extending our special price from last year of $200! HALF PRICE!

Please take advantage of this opportunity. Life is too short to not live it on purpose!
